Cornell Boys Win the University Race.

Terrible Accident at Lynchburgh, Va.

SARATOGA LAKE, July 14.—The official time for Cornell is 16 minutes and 53 seconds. The result of the race officially declared is as follows: Cornell first, Columbia second, Harvard third, Dartmouth fourth, Yale fifth; the others straggled.

There was great enthusiasm over the Cornell crew. They were carried back and forth between the Grand Stand and the finish line.

SARATOGA, July 14.—In the first half mile Cornell and Harvard were ahead. In the second mile Cornell was ahead.

The single scull was won by Yale in 6 lengths.

ITHACA, N. Y., July 14.—The news of the Cornell's second and greatest victory has caused the most intense excitement here. The great fire bell and other bells are ringing; the University chimes pealing, bombs and fire crackers exploding, guns firing and business places and private buildings festooned.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 14.—The National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America is in session here. Twenty-nine representatives were initiated.

BOSTON, July 14.—The vinegar factory of E. M. Pittingill has been seized for manufacturing distilled spirits.

LYNCHBURGH, July 14.—At 4 o'clock this morning the rear portion of the City Hotel fell with a great crash. Fortunately the five or six rooms destroyed were not fully occupied. As far as known only 3 persons were killed.

The killed and injured are as follows: Mrs. L. Brown, killed; T. E. Harris, commission broker, badly injured; a negro child, severely bruised; and a negro child, missing.

Mrs. Brown was dead when reached by the firemen. The building was old but was considered safe.

ATLANTA, July 14.—Tom Wells, formerly a commission merchant of this city, committed suicide. It is said that financial troubles was the cause.

LOUISVILLE, July 14.—The Japanese Commissioners to the Centennial have arrived, and are preparing to put up temporary buildings.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Cardinal McCloskey sails for Rome on August 7th.

RAZOR, N. C., July 14.—The Congress delegates reported was Hon. J. Levey, of Louisiana and R. D. Wynne, of Georgia.

Judge Jones, of Arkansas, addressed the Congress on the subject of establishing Agricultural Bureaus in the several States.

He read a telegram from the Agent at New Orleans of the Rockdale Corporation, Col. Jones, of Arkansas, James, of Georgia, and Butler, of Georgia, made such a statement as to the advantages of a resolution requiring the delegates to the Congress to urge the Legislature of their respective States to follow the precedent so wisely established by Georgia in establishing a State Department of Agriculture.

Dr. Jones, of Ga., spoke in advocacy of the resolution, and explaining the great good that had been accomplished in that State by this department. He claimed that $2,000,000 would be saved to the farmers of Georgia this year by its workings.

The resolution was adopted. The affairs of the district trade union were discussed, and it was stated that while the workingmen had not been altogether satisfactory, but it had established the fact that it could be made productive of great good to the Southern States.

An essay was read from Dr. E. M. Penland, of Georgia, pertaining to agricultural colleges and departments of agriculture.

Col. Johnston, of North Carolina, reported from the special committee advocating their establishment of a State banking system as particularly advantageous to the whole country, and asking Congress to relieve the tax upon the State banks as a matter of justice and right.

A Constitution and By-Laws was adopted, making the election of officers biennial.

Col. D. E. Butler, of Georgia, was re-elected President, Col. J. D. Whitford, of North Carolina, Secretary, K. M. Sims, of South Carolina, Treasurer.

Nashville was selected as the next place of meeting.

A resolution was adopted urging the importance of the absolute propriety of producing an abundance of all articles of prime necessity. The Committee of proper basis to unite the commercial interests of Southern and Western States said these States should be more closely united together, as the strongest ties of commercial interests existed by reason of their diversity of climate and soil, each producing the prime articles of domestic necessity required by the other.

A resolution was adopted requesting Congress to afford such aid as will insure the construction of the great trunk line of railway from Chicago to Morris-town, Tenn., from St. Louis through Cumberland Gap to Knoxville, and from Memphis to near Atlanta, Ga.

The question of co-operation with the Rockdale Society of England was referred to the National Grange of Niagara Book Trade Convention.

The resolution that none but members of the Association be allowed to participate in the Association is under consideration.

The resolution requesting publishers to lessen discounts to persons who persist in underselling is under consideration.

LAWRENCE, MASS., July 14.—The Mayor publishes a card, in which he claims that the riot was caused by the floating population of the city.

The boarding house used by the water works hands was burned and two of the inmates perished.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—To-day the special agent of the Treasury was transferred from the office of the Commissioner of Customs to that of the Solicitor, a sufficient number, however, being detailed to attend to the accounts in the Commissioner's office.

No change in the assignments of the duties of the special agents are immediately contemplated.

It is estimated that 120,000,000 postal cards will be used the present year.

Prof. Marsh has written a letter to the President regarding Indian frauds, wherein he gives full detail, and declares he has no confidence in the sincerity of the Secretary of
